South Wales Chamber of Commerce welcomes John Collins & Partners Solicitors as Patron Members

The South Wales Chamber of Commerce (SWCC) welcomes its first Patron from West Wales since merging with the West Wales Chamber of Commerce (WWCC).

Based in Swansea, John Collins & Partners LLP Solicitors (JCP Solicitors) work with private, public and private individuals across West and South Wales helping them resolve a broad range of commercial, regulatory and personal issues.

JCP Solicitors were active members of the West Wales Chamber of Commerce and are keen to keep the momentum going, particularly as Patron Members with the influential SWCC, now representing over 1000 members pan South Wales.

Graham Morgan, Director of the South Wales Chamber, said: "We are delighted to have JCP Solicitors on board and are looking forward to building a strong working relationship with the company."

“During the recent difficult economic period, the company could not have come on board at a better time to help our members with any commercial, regulatory or personal issues they have.

“Not only will our members benefit from having JCP Solicitors on board but our new patron members will benefit from the patron member package we offer, which includes: discount on chamber events, company logo displayed on key communication material, advance notice of events including the opportunity of sponsorship, involvement of preparation of business guides and much more.”

Steve Penny, Managing Partner of JCP Solicitors, said: “JCP Solicitors have always enjoyed a good relationship with the WWCC and when the merger took place, becoming Patron Members seemed like the next natural step.

“We plan to use SWCC to assist with widening our profile, whilst maintaining our local business involvement in the Swansea Bay/West Wales area.”
